FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Today's Gospel begins immediately after the final verse in last Sunday's Gospel. After strong language about the difficulties of discipleship, Jesus immediately appoints 72 people to go ahead of him to every town and place he plans to visit, proclaiming that the Kingdom of God is at hand. He sends them in pairs. In the Law of Moses two witnesses were needed for a testimony to be credible. It was probably also a safer way to travel.

Jesus admits it will be difficult, that he is sending them out like lambs among wolves. Yet they are to bring nothing with them, not even a money bag or sandals. They are to greet no one on the way so as not to be distracted from their mission. When they enter a house, their message is simply "peace." The response they will receive may be positive or negative. Either way, they are to know that the Kingdom of God is at hand. They are not to demand special treatment but eat and drink whatever is given them. They are to stay in one house and are not to look around for one that provides better accommodations. They are to heal the sick as a sign that the Kingdom of God is at hand for them. Like Jesus' miracles, healing is a sign of the coming of the kingdom. If the town will not receive them, they are to shake the dust from their feet and move on. Even in the case of such rejection they should know that the Kingdom of God is at hand.

When they return from their journeys, they are rejoicing because their mission has been successful. Demons were under their power because of Jesus' name. Jesus may have sent them out as lambs among wolves, but at the conclusion of this passage he assures them that they have been given power over the enemy and nothing will harm them, not even serpents and scorpions.

A key theme of today's Gospel and last Sunday's Gospel is discipleship—its challenges, its difficulties, and its rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest.

Jesus called each of His disciples personally and then sent them out in his name. He trusted them with the responsibility of carrying out his mission and ministry. Today, Jesus calls each of us by our name and entrusts us with the same responsibility. Today, each of us is asked by Jesus to not only to hear and believe in him, we are called to share this good news whenever and wherever we can.

As Pope Francis reminds us in the Joy of the Gospel, "Every Christian is a missionary to the extent that he or she has encountered the love of God in Jesus Christ: we no longer say that we are 'disciples' or 'missionaries', but always missionary disciples." The mission and vocation to hear and share the good news of the gospel belongs to all of us, not just some of us.

The responsibility of promoting and building the Kingdom belongs to all the baptized. We should not be discouraged if and when people do not listen to us. The quality of our lives is the greatest example we can offer others. The church documents tell that above all the gospel must be proclaimed by witness. Jesus has called each of us by our name, he has filled each of us with his Spirit and sends us out in his name; we are not alone.

“Renew My Church” Prayer:

Lord Jesus you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.

In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: “Renew My Church.”

Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us, and so enable us
to hear you clearly

to listen to each other attentively to imagine our future boldly to discern your direction wisely to persevere in your holy will courageously to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good to hand on your gifts to future generations.

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles, and all the saints.

May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.

We ask this of you who live and reign with the Father

in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

CATECHISTS NEEDED

Can You Help?

Although we are in the middle of summer and the thought of starting a new Religious Education school year may seem a bit premature, it is never too soon to begin planning for our wonderful students who are in need of individuals that are willing to share their faith.

We are looking for individuals who love their faith and want to make a difference in a child's faith formation. I believe we have people in our parish who are willing to bring the Word of God to children who cannot attend a Catholic School. Won't you please help us by volunteering as a catechist so that we can continue to accept all of the children who come to us?

For those, who are a little afraid of teaching, be aware that the Archdiocese of Chicago offers classes for new catechists to help prepare you to teach.

We are in need of three teachers for the coming year. PLEASE HELP!!!

If you are interested, please call the rectory at 773.767.1523 ext. 226. If I am not in the office, leave your name and phone number and I will return your call.

Enjoy the rest of the summer.

Judy Banasiak, Coordinator of Religious Education

An Invitation to Join* The Roman Catholic Church

*or perhaps become fully initiated into the sacramental life of the Church

through the RCIA Process

If you are (or know someone who is):

- An adult who has never been baptized
- An adult who was baptized in another denomination or faith tradition
- An adult who is baptized Catholic but would like to complete his or her Sacraments of Initiation (receive the Eucharist/celebrate your First Holy Communion; celebrate your Confirmation)

This fall, our parish will begin the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) process with the period of inquiry and questioning – there is no formal commitment at this time. The only requirement at this point is a desire to explore one's relationship with God through the Catholic Faith. In a supportive group setting, we will learn about the teachings of the Catholic Faith, share stories, and journey together toward greater intimacy with our God through the reception of the Sacraments.

For more information, please contact our Parish Office at 773-767-1523.

OFFICE CLOSED

The parish office will be closed
Thursday, July 11th through Monday July 15th due to the Family Fest. We will reopen for regular business hours as of Tuesday, July 16th at 9am.

SEE YOU AT THE FEST!!!

Lectors
OLP

St. Symphorosa is currently seeking well read and reliable persons who are interested in proclaiming the Living Word of God during weekend Masses. If you are interested please contact Maggie at the parish office (773.767.1523) for more information.
