Fr. Bob's Weekly Blog

"Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and knit together by every joint with which it is supplied, when each part is working properly, makes bodily growth and upbuilds itself in love." Ephesians 15: 15-16

There was a time in history the Roman Empire WAS the world.

The span of land was immense; her military and economic power unparalleled. There were likely those in power at the time who thought, "We will rule forever." Well, history has proven them wrong.

Civilizations – great and small – come and go.

How did so mighty and rich an empire fall? The bath water got too warm.

Huh? What does that mean, Fr. Bob? For the life of me, I cannot remember where I saw that simple, thought-provoking answer to the aforementioned question. The bath water got too warm.

Basically what it means is that life got too comfortable; many folks became complacent with the riches and comforts of the day. The fall of the Roman Empire did not happen overnight, but fall, indeed, she did. The same was true of Israel, as we learn in the Old Testament.

God was on their side, but time and time again, God's people were not on God's side, and they would find themselves taken over and the influential people of the land exiled into foreign lands.

The Prophet Amos, in our first reading this weekend, warned Zion about their complacency. And it is a warning we still need to heed in this day and age. Without question, we live in the most affluent, powerful nation humankind has known, but we too risk growing too comfortable, too complacent. Has our bath water gotten too warm?

The temptation in all this – comfort and riches – is to forget Someone – to forget about God, and a direct result of forgetting about God is that we soon forget the inherent dignity of the human person; life becomes expendable; or worse, an inconvenience.

In our Gospel, the rich man has it all, but his excessive riches blind him to the circumstances of Lazarus at his door. It's not like the man in need was halfway across the world. He was literally at his door step, and the rich man steps over him on his way to dinner.

The issue is not wealth. This issue is not a person being rich. The issue IS when the rich person forgets – or ignores – the poor at their very own door. Lazarus had the same human dignity as the rich man, but the rich man did not see it that way; and he paid the price – eternally!

We would be naïve to think that our own country is immune from the same fate as the Roman Empire. Day after day, we see a gradual moral decline; a lessening of civility. God is being forgotten, ignored and/or mocked; all the while we feast and entertain ourselves to the extreme. Need proof (how do people react when their internet or cable is out for a day?)

When a modern-day prophet points this out, they are heckled and shown disdain just as the prophets of old were disdained in their own day. "Leave me alone with all that divine gibberish. I've got a game to attend; a movie to watch."

The good news is ... it's never too late to wake up to the reality that God is God and we are not, and that all human life is sacred – from womb to tomb. The sacredness of life comes not from us, but from the One who created us to know Him, love Him and serve Him in this world so that we may be happy with God forever in the next.

Nothing wrong with a good warm bath, but we still have to get up out of it, put our boots on, and serve the Lord one day at a time without stepping over the Lazarus in our way.

God's 'Lil Creatures

St. Rene Parish will offer a Pet Blessing on Sunday, October 5th at noon (12 pm). Parishioners and local neighbors are welcome to bring your cat, dog, bunny, etc. over to the front parking lot for a concise prayer followed by individual blessing of the pets with holy water.

This is always a small but special event. One of the treasures of this neighborhood is how many people walk the perimeter of the parish with their dog. It's a great way to say hi to each other. Even my lil spunky friend Bella has stopped barking at me when she encounters me on the sidewalk.

So bring your pet, and remember these animals we love are a great gift from God.

Quote of the Week:

"I define charity as a motion of the soul whose purpose is to enjoy God for His own sake and oneself and one's neighbor for the sake of God."

– St. Augustine.

Baby Bottle Project

St. Rene parish will once again participate in the Baby Bottle Project. So keep an eye out in the coming weeks for the baby bottles. Save your change.

The donations raised from this project go directly to The Women's Center of Chicago. This organization has helped over 40,000 babies in 34 years.

Please put your spare change in the baby bottle when you take one home. The money collected will help mothers who are facing a crisis pregnancy and who have little or no support.

The Women's Center provides financial, material and spiritual assistance to the women free of charge. The Women's Center also offers post abortive counseling to women seeking healing after their abortion and this is also offered free of charge.

When you bring the baby bottle back to church, you can give the bottle to the ushers or place them in the provided boxes in the church narthex.

What Does it Mean? Catholic Vocabulary

Chasuble

The sleeveless liturgical outer garment used primarily for the celebration of Mass. Worn over the other vestments, this tent-like garment covers the entire body with only an opening for the wearers head. Throughout the centuries, it took on a variety of shapes and sizes with the current interest reverting to the Gothic. This garment is the distinctive sign of the priestly office, symbolizing Christ's yoke.

Our Catholic Faith

By Fr. Bob Regan

“Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you; and behold, I am with you always, to the close of the age.” Matthew 28:19-20

This year's St. Rene Children's Faith Formation Program began Wednesday, September 18, with Holy Mass.

What better way to begin a new year than by having the parents and their children gather in our church to celebrate the Eucharist? We had a good turnout, and that's a promising sign for our community.

Allow me to re-emphasize why we are being particular about this program being called Faith Formation.

Occasionally a parent will call the office or show up at the parish office to register their child, and the parent will say, “I want to sign my child up for C.C.D.” Or the parent will say, “When does Religious Education begin?”

God bless the fact they are seeking what's best for their child, and we all grew up calling it C.C.D or R.E. However, we do want to move toward embracing a term that is more truly indicative of what we are seeking as disciples of Jesus. We want our children to be FORMED IN OUR FAITH.

Image a potter sitting at a potter's wheel molding something into shape – forming something unshapely into shape. This is a great image to consider as we relate to Faith Formation. Even we adults are still in the process of formation (unless we consider ourselves perfect and no longer in need of God's shaping of our life).

We've highlighted a couple areas of concern to address this year. A top priority is that the children learn the basics – the essentials – of Holy Mass. Each grade level will learn appropriate content pertaining to the Mass. If we have no idea what's going on at Mass, it's just like sitting in front of the TV watching a sport we know nothing about. We'll soon change the channel. Bottom line? We need to know more about the life-giving grace of Holy Mass.

Another area we want to highlight is the reception of Holy Communion. As was apparent the other evening, far too many of our children appear to have not been taught reverent reception of the Eucharist. And perhaps if they were taught, they need a re-fresher. We literally receive Jesus Himself in the Eucharist. The reverent way to receive the Lord is either directly on the tongue, or by placing our dominant hand under our other hand – creating a mini throne. We then use our dominant hand to take the host and promptly consume. One-handed grabs, quick snatches of the fingers, and facial looks of boredom seem to miss the point of Christ's giving of His very Self FOR US.

Lastly, all of the volunteer catechists received a copy of The Real Story: Understanding the Big Picture of the Bible. This is a short, readable, excellent book about putting together all the little stories of the Bible we have learned over the years into one big picture notion of God's great love for us. This is something I personally never received when I was growing up. Sure, I learned all the stories, and probably took tests about it, but I'm not sure anyone (until seminary) ever helped me see how Adam & Eve, Noah, Abraham, Moses, David and Jesus are all connected. And what it means for us. Curious? Order it!!!

May God bless our children being FORMED in the FAITH. And may we who are responsible for our children, be authentic examples of faith in action.

A Prayer for “Renew My Church”

Lord Jesus, you speak to us today,
as you spoke to holy men and women who have gone before us.
In every age and in our own time,
you call to us and say: Renew My Church.
Pour out the gift of your Holy Spirit upon us,
and so enable us
to hear you clearly to listen to each other attentively to imagine our future boldly to discern your direction wisely to persevere in your holy will courageously to stay together in charity to surrender our own plans readily to embrace the greater good to hand on your gifts to future generations.

May we remain in the holy company of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the apostles and all the saints.
May their example and presence inspire us with patient confidence in the work of your grace.
We ask this of you who live and reign
with the Father
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

Holy Fire 2019

This fall, thousands of young Catholics will gather together at the UIC Pavilion on Friday, October 18th and Saturday, October 19th for Holy Fire Chicago, the Archdiocese of Chicago's signature event for sixth through ninth graders.

This event enables attendees to celebrate the gift of their faith as well as witness God's work in their lives. In a blend of entertainment that includes rock, pop, and worship, Holy Fire Chicago enables attendees to truly connect with God while having a fun, genuine experience with young Catholics like themselves.

The young Catholic church in Chicago is alive, strong, and thriving, and we can't wait to celebrate that at Holy Fire 2019!

First Reconciliation Parent Meeting

On Wednesday, October 9th, at 6:00 p.m. our parents from the Faith Formation program whose children are preparing for First Reconciliation, will gather for a special meeting in preparation for the Sacrament, which takes place in January.

We initially prepare our children for this sacrament as we teach them about right and wrong. And way before they understand what sin is, we teach them to say "I'm sorry" when they have done wrong or have hurt someone. Once again, we emphasize that parents are the first and primary catechists of their children, using "teachable moments" to help their children grow in faith.

The focus of the Parent Gathering on October 9th will be to honor your role as parents and assist you in that role. Fr. Bob Regan will be the Presenter.
